Good day;

I hope this my message find you in good health, I got your details on the Internet during a serious search for a trustworthy personality, I'm Jolima Winde, I am 23 years old and I am the grandson of Foday Sankoh, the rebel leader of Sierra Leone. which opposes the government of former president Ahmad Tejan Kabbah. I have been a refugee.

I am currently in Porto-Novo, Benin due to the political war in my country which caused the death of my mother during the war. My father decided to deport me because I am an only child and I lost my father on 11/25/2023. During the war, my late father made a fortune selling diamonds to the tune of $10,200,000. Ten million two hundred dollars.

This money was kept secret at the ECOWAS security company in Porto-Novo Benin due to the political problems and unrest that still exists in Africa. I cannot invest these funds alone, so I am asking for your help in placing these funds under your care for investment and I would like to add here that if you agree 40% of the total value of the fund will be yours, less all expenses incurred. During the clearing of the funds in Porto Novo Benin, 40% will be around $4,080,000 four million eighty thousand dollars of the total funds after we confirm the funds there. I hope to hear from you soon.

Thanks
